From the Pastor

The Lord is risen! He is risen indeed!

Our Lenten journey for 2019 reaches its goal today in our glorious celebration of the Lord's Resurrection. Jesus, who died for us, has been raised from the dead by the power of his Father, never again to die. His passion and death bear their fruit in the Resurrection, the definitive triumph over every evil.

Jesus has trampled down the gates of death and opened for us the way to eternal life. He who is the Way has shown us the way to heaven. It is the way of the Cross, which on this day is revealed for what it truly is, the Tree of Life.

Jesus teaches, "If a man wishes to come after me, he must deny his very self, take up his cross, and begin to follow in my footsteps" (Matthew 16:24).

The very self that Jesus speaks of is that self which thinks and acts like the first Adam. It pushes us to seek our fulfillment in the things and people of this world rather than in God, and wishes us to "hide" from God and the demands of his love just as Adam hid himself in the garden of Eden (Genesis 3:10).

That very self, Jesus tells us, must be denied—put to death—that we might be born again and become a new creation in Christ, the second Adam (2 Corinthians 5:17).

St. Paul describes this experience of being born again in these terms: "I have been crucified with Christ, and the life I live now is not my own; Christ is living in me. I still live my human life, but it is a life of faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me" (Galatians 2:19b-20).

"If we have died with Christ," St. Paul reminds us, "we believe that we are also to live with him. If we have been united with him through likeness to his death, so shall we be through a like resurrection. This we know: our old self was crucified with him so that the sinful body might be destroyed and we might be slave to sin no longer" (Romans 6:8, 5-6).

To be slaves of sin no longer, to live for and with Christ, to be born again, to be born from above, to become a new creation in Christ: that is the glory of Easter and the source of its eternal joy.

A blessed and holy Easter to you and all your loved ones!

Yours in Christ,

Father Walter

Dear St. Hugh Parish Families,

With Easter Break underway, we pray that you will be able to celebrate the true meaning of Easter and the joy that Easter Sunday brings in the promise of eternal life.

When our children return to school next week Monday, we will be commencing with end-of-year testing for all grades in reading and math and for select grades, science. Our kindergarten-3rd grade students will also be enjoying the new after school club (Reading club) and our 2nd graders are finishing their preparation for their First Eucharist.

Have a blessed Easter! .

SCHOOL OF RELIGION

CCD (Confraternity of Christian Doctrine) religious education program at St. Hugh of Grenoble provides faith formation for all children from age 4 through 8th grade. Students are taught the principles of Catholic doctrine for faith formation and to fulfill the requirements for sacraments. We have only a few classes left for the school year and we ask that your child attend weekly Mass and attend all classes as attendance is considered part of student curriculum. More than two absences may potentially jeopardize your child from moving to the next grade.

Calendar Dates:

- April 21 - No CCD, Easter Sunday
- April 27 - Growing Community Plan Sale, 9:00am to 12:00pm
- April 28 - First Holy Communion Retreat, 10:30 to 1:30pm
- April 28 - Last CCD class and last day to turn in Rice Bowl donation
- May 1 - Confirmation Mass at 4:00pm
- May 5 - First Holy Communion Mass at 11:00am
- May 12 - May Procession

Special Needs Ministry --Helping those with disabilities and their families share in the fullness of our Catholic Faith and Community life.

"Parish sacramental celebrations should be accessible to persons with disabilities and open to their full, active, and conscious participation, according to their capacity." —United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, Guidelines for the Celebration of the Sacraments with Persons with Disabilities (1995), no. 3

We are looking forward to the 11:00am Mass on May 5th when one of our young parishioners with autism will be receiving her first holy communion, along with her two younger sisters and the second grade religious education class. For the past year, she has been receiving regular catechetical instruction from Joseph Lomax with the guidance of her teen faith mentor, Adaeze Udeze, in our school of religion, and adapted sacramental preparation on Saturdays from catechist Rossana McKenzie. We are so proud of her and rejoice with her family as we approach this very special day for Vivian. We are most grateful for your prayers for all of our young parishioners who are preparing to receive our Lord in holy communion for the first time this May.

CONFIRMATION CORNER

Thank you for your prayers for our confirmation candidates, Michael, Joseph, Jonathan, John, Kelechi, Abigail, and Ateh. Congratulations and many thanks to our Team: Fr. Walter, Patrick Serra, Rossana McKenzie, and Joseph Lomax with a warm welcome to our guest member, Rohanie Bacchus. Before we headed home, we enjoyed a brief tour of the Shrine of St. Anthony.
