From the Pastor

Today, the Octave of Easter, we conclude the eight-day celebration of the Lord's Resurrection that began on Easter Sunday. These eight days in effect constitute one great Sunday of spiritual joy and festivity.

St. John Paul II modified the liturgical calendar during his pontificate so that this Sunday would henceforth be known as Divine Mercy Sunday. He did this in response to an ever-growing devotion to God's Divine Mercy that is rooted in the private revelations of our Lord to St. Faustina Kowalska.

Faustina Helena Kowalska was born in the village of Glogowiec west of Lodz, Poland, on August 25, 1905. She was the third of ten children. When she was almost twenty, she entered the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy, whose members devote themselves to the care and education of troubled young women. She received her religious habit under the name of Sister Maria Faustina of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

In the 1930s, Faustina received from the Lord a message of mercy that she was told to spread throughout the world. She was asked to become the apostle and secretary of God's mercy, a model of how to be merciful to others, and an instrument for reemphasizing God's plan of mercy for the world.

At our Lord's request, she willingly offered her personal sufferings in union with him to atone for the sins of others; in her daily life she was to become a doer of mercy, bringing joy and peace to others; and by writing about God's mercy, she was to encourage others to trust in him and thus prepare the world for his return at the end of time.

For four years she recorded divine revelations and mystical experiences, together with her own inmost thoughts, insights, and prayers. The result is a book of some 600 printed pages that, in simple language, repeats and clarifies the gospel story of God's love for his people, emphasizing, above all, the need to trust in his loving action in all the aspects of our lives. It also reveals an extraordinary example of how to respond to God's mercy and manifest it to others.

She wrote and suffered in secret, with only her spiritual director and some of her superiors aware that anything special was taking place in her life. After her death from tuberculosis in 1938, even her closest associates in her religious community were amazed to discover the great sufferings and deep mystical experiences the Lord had given her, all hidden beneath a countenance so cheerful and humble. She had taken deeply into her heart God's gospel command to "be merciful even as your heavenly Father is merciful" as well as her confessor's directive that she should act in such a way that everyone who came in contact with her would go away joyful.

The message of mercy that Saint Faustina received is spreading throughout the world. She was canonized by the Church on April 30, 2000, and her diary, Divine Mercy in My Soul, has become the handbook for devotion to the Divine Mercy. So many Catholics now pray the Divine Mercy chaplet daily at the 3 o'clock hour (the hour of our Lord's death on the Cross) in fulfillment as it were of what St. Faustina wrote in her diary:

I feel certain that my mission will not come to an end upon my death, but will begin. O doubting souls, I will draw aside for you the veils of heaven to convince you of God's goodness (Diary 281).

Yours in Christ,

Father Walter

Dear St. Hugh Parish Families,

With less than a month and a half to go, our students will be completing end of year testing in reading and mathematics. We are also gearing up for Teacher appreciation week next week to honor the outstanding teachers who make a difference in the lives of our children.

Space is also filling up quickly for the 2019 – 2020 school year with 45% more applications than last year at this time. We are so grateful that so many families are deciding to choose and trust St. Joseph's in the education of their child.

SCHOOL OF RELIGION

CCD (Confraternity of Christian Doctrine) religious education program at St. Hugh of Grenoble provides faith formation for all children from age 4 through 8th grade. Students are taught the principles of Catholic doctrine for faith formation and to fulfill the requirements for sacraments. We have only a few classes left for the school year and we ask that your child attend weekly Mass and attend all classes as attendance is considered part of student curriculum. More than two absences may potentially jeopardize your child from moving to the next grade.

Calendar Dates:

- April 28 - First Holy Communion Retreat, 10:30 to 1:30pm
- April 28 - Last CCD class and last day to turn in Rice Bowl donation
- May 1 - Confirmation Mass at 4:00pm
- May 5 - First Holy Communion Mass at 11:00am
- May 12 - May Procession

Special Needs Ministry --Helping those with disabilities and their families share in the fullness of our Catholic Faith and Community life.

"Parish sacramental celebrations should be accessible to persons with disabilities and open to their full, active, and conscious participation, according to their capacity." —United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, Guidelines for the Celebration of the Sacraments with Persons with Disabilities (1995), no. 3

We are looking forward to the 11:00am Mass on May 5th when one of our young parishioners with autism will be receiving her first holy communion, along with her two younger sisters and the second grade religious education class. For the past year, she has been receiving regular catechetical instruction from Joseph Lomax with the guidance of her teen faith mentor, Adaeze Udeze, in our school of religion, and adapted sacramental preparation on Saturdays from catechist Rossana McKenzie. We are so proud of her and rejoice with her family as we approach this very special day for Vivian. We are most grateful for your prayers for all of our young parishioners who are preparing to receive our Lord in holy communion for the first time this May.

CONFIRMATION CORNER

Thank you for your prayers for our confirmation candidates, Michael, Joseph, Jonathan, John, Kelechi, Abigail, and Ateh. Congratulations and many thanks to our Team: Fr. Walter, Patrick Serra, Rossana McKenzie, and Joseph Lomax with a warm welcome to our guest member, Rohanie Bacchus. Before we headed home, we enjoyed a brief tour of the Shrine of St. Anthony.
